Pancake Night

Thank you to everyone who worked so hard to make our Pancake Night such a success. Despite the weather being cold and miserable, it was nice and cosy in the church and the fellowship and hospitality were wonderful. It was also a successful fundraiser with $682 being raised on the night. A very special thank you to Jan McLean who not only coordinated the whole event, but who also made pancakes, sauce and salad, and then managed the raffle on the night, including selling raffle tickets, and also checked everyone in on the night and collected their money. A big thank you also to Joy Clemie who, along with Jan, made pancakes for the night, and thank you to everyone who made sauces, salads and sweets, and who brought other food items for the evening as well.

Donation from Thursday Guild

The ladies of St Andrew's Thursday Guild have very generously funded the purchase of both a Lectern Book of the Gospels (from which we will read the gospel passage each Sunday) and a pair of glass cruets which we will use to serve the wine and water during the Thanksgiving Prayer for Holy Communion. These items will be blessed during the service this Sunday (25 April) for use each week from the following Sunday (2 May)
